After School Programme Staff Casual workers required for September 2026

Applications are sought from suitably qualified candidates for the After School Programme at Warwick Academy. The programme offers the supervision of students' and activities from Reception Year to Year 6, 2:30pm to 5:30pm daily, during the regular school year.

We are looking for several casual workers who will be under the direction of the After School Leadership Team. The requirements for the positions are:

- Experience working with young children.
- CPR, First-Aid, and SCARS certification will be required.
- Excellent communication, interpersonal and organisational skills.
- The ability to work collaboratively in a team.
- A minimum age of 18 years old.

Applicants are asked to provide the following information in their resume: Full name, date of birth, nationality, details of secondary and higher education (dated), all qualifications (dated), and details of experience. Please also include the names, contact telephone numbers and e-mail addresses of two persons willing to provide confidential professional references, one of whom should be your current or most recent employer. Resumes and letters of application must be emailed to: Mrs. D. Hassell, dhassell@warwick.bm

Successful applicants will be required to provide an up-to-date criminal police check, within the last 6-months, on commencement of employment.

We are seeking Bermudians, spouses of Bermudians or Permanent Resident Certificate holders to fill these posts.

Closing date: Friday, 15th May, 2026
